Ops Course

Memo for the Record

7 June 1955

Extract from "Summary of Proceedings, Clandestine Services Training Officers Meeting, 26 May 1955":

1. Deputy Director of Training announced that OTR would give the first integrated Ops Course on 3 October 1955. In response to queries he said that OTR would give the trg offs of DDP a description of the course 60 days before that date.
2. C/CSTC requested that OTR give CM and T and CO once again before that date for people who were scheduled to go overseas and for those who had not yet had CO.
3. The OTR position on this request was that the course had to be adjusted to newcomers to the Agency; the new recruiting program for the DDP would bring in large number who would have to go thru all phases of basic training People who are now on duty and lack CO would have to take a course at Headquarters. Since the Integrated Ops Crs could not be divided into units, no one could enroll for a portion of it.
